1819 (June)

The province of Texas was torn by constant warfare. At Natchez, Miss. however another movement was started to bring the State to life.

Dr. James Long (an army surgeon & veteran of Battle of New Orleans (1815)), called a mass meeting. In June 1819 Long's army now 300 strong arrived at NACOGDOCHES and took possession. In Dr Long's expedition was two old friends BERNARDO GOTTIERRES and SAMUEL DAVEENPORT (king of the leaders of the major expedition). The new president government of Tapa consisted of a supreme council, members of which were: HORATIO BIGELOW, HANLIN

COOK, STEPHEN BARKER, JOHN SIBLEY, SAMUEL DAVEENPORT
JOHN G. BURETT, J. CHILD, PEDRO PRECCO and BERNARDO GOTTIERRES. This new government assumed authority for all Tapa and passed a declaration of independence from Spain. This year's war took place and @ 100,000. Taking Port was collected at two points of the Tapa R. A population was built near the present town of Washington.
